PRODUCT: SESAME SEEDS

'Open Sesame!', the well known phrase from the Arabian Nights is based on a distinguishing feature of the sesame plant. - the seed pod bursts open when they ripen and reach maturity!

Since ancient times, sesame seeds were valued for their seemingly magical properties. It was believed to be the seed of health, vigour and eternal youthfulness. Sesame seeds have very high oil content compared to other oil seeds. With their rich and nutty flavor, sesame seeds are a popular ingredient in a variety of cuisines world over. This tasty and extremely versatile ingredient can be easily incorporated in sweet and savoury dishes.

Our Aqua hulled sesame seeds are the best for topping on bread, buns and crackers. You can use Natural sesame seeds, white or black, for baking into sweet or savory dishes. Our Natural toasted sesame seeds taste amazing when sprinkled on simple preparations like salads or exotic dishes such as sushi.

Our Hulled sesame seeds can be ground and processed for confectionary, or you can just toast the seeds yourself to add great flavour to all your breads, cookies and more.

“ Our sesame seeds are cleaned, hulled and optically sorted with Wilmington's Proprietary Process using the best in European technology from Cimbria, Buhler and Maseto wherein absolutely no chemicals are used. This results in the original flavor, color and aroma remaining intact until the product is consumed. ”

THE REAL HEALTH BENEFITS OF SESAME SEEDS

Sesame seeds are rich in healthy fatty acids, antioxidants and minerals such as iron, magnesium, calcium, phosphorus, and zinc. They also contain several dietary vitamins including B vitamins. Sesame seeds are a good source of protein and energy as well. Just 100 gms of sesame seeds provide 573 calories . With just 23% of carbohydrates, of which 12% is dietary fibre, this gluten free seed is a blessing for those looking for healthy and tasty food choices.

Sesame seeds have been noted for their positive effect on bone/joint health and immune strengthening properties. They have been observed to protect the liver from oxidative damage. Sesame seeds contain two distinctive components known as sesamin and sesamol. They are both special beneficial fibers called lignans (polyphenolic substances) help lower cholesterol and high blood pressure levels.

TYPES OF SESAME SEEDS

Wilmington Foods is a leading provider of premium sesame seeds in bulk quantities, in the world. We offer several varieties of sesame seeds such as

🌿 Hulled Sesame Seeds

🌿 Natural White Sesame Seeds

🌿 Natural Black Sesame Seeds

🌿 Roasted/Toasted Sesame Seeds

HULLED SESAME SEEDS

Sesame seeds without their outer covering or husk is called Hulled sesame seeds. This makes the seeds much easier to digest. Hulled sesame seeds from Wilmington Foods are widely known for their highest grade of purity, aroma and flavor. We source top quality sesame seeds from the fertile regions of African countries such as Nigeria, Sudan and Ethiopia.

The seeds are subjected to several processing stages which ensure that only the top quality product reaches our clients.

- 🌿 Fresh and premium grade natural sesame seeds are mechanically hulled and dried which preserves all proteins, amino acids and vitamins that are necessary for easy digestion and absorption of food.
- 🌿 In the next level of processing, the selected batch of seeds are scanned in an optical sorter to produce bold, uniform and spotless 99.99% of purity level which are then distributed to our clients worldwide. Hulled sesame seeds have high oil content and can be used to make cooking oil.

NATURAL WHITE SESAME SEEDS

Wilmington Foods offer the highest-quality natural white sesame seeds in the Middle East. Our seeds are Sortex cleaned to ensure our clients get the purest of product. Our processing units with cutting edge European technology and equipment are capable of processing bulk quantities of premium quality, export ready, natural sesame seeds to meet all our clients' requirements on time.

With our client friendly approach, we offer customization in terms of personal labeling and volumes (200gms to 50kgs). We guarantee a moisture content of less than 6% and an oil content of 45 to 65%. Our sesame seeds are also guaranteed to be E-coli and Salmonella free. Natural white sesame seeds have higher calcium content than hulled sesame seeds.

NATURAL BLACK SESAME SEEDS

Wilmington Foods offers both Natural black and jet black sesame seeds that are Sortex cleaned to ensure their cleanliness and purity. Black sesame seeds are said to have a stronger flavor and are richer in calcium content than its white counterpart.

Traditional Chinese health practitioners use these highly nutritious black sesame seeds for treating illnesses that arise from worry and ageing. Other than their anti-ageing benefits, black sesame seeds are said to be especially good for skin and bone health.

PRODUCT: TAHINA

Tahini or tahina is made using hulled sesame. It is toasted and ground to make a paste which can be served as a dip or as an ingredient in popular Middle-Eastern dishes such as hummus, baba ganoush, and halawa. Tahini comes from the Arabic word: tahīniyya طحينية. Tahana طحن which means "to grind", while in some dialects it means "flour". Tahini has been mentioned in Arab cookbooks from as early as the 13th century, such as the Hummus recipe in the Kitab Wasf al-Atima al-Mutada.

Our Tahina is a synergy of traditional Middle Eastern preparation and cutting edge European technology. This results in a rich, smooth and enticing Tahina with its delicate nutty flavour and just the right hint of sweetness. You will get all the legendary nutritional wealth of sesame seeds in this wonderfully creamy delicacy. Tahina is a better alternative to nut butter in terms of high nutrition and tastes great as a simple yet flavorful salad dressing. This humble dish has gained fame worldwide and is added in various sauces, frostings, cookies and other baked goods.

PRODUCT: HALAWA

Halawa or Halvah is a general term for desserts made using flour and various nut butters. But in the Middle East, Halawa refers to mainly one item - a sesame based confection that is not only decadently delicious, but also highly nutritious. Sesame halawa is rich in protein, magnesium, calcium, iron and many more nutrients and plant sterols which are highly beneficial to our health.

Halawa is a very versatile dish that can be flavored with many possibilities such as chocolate, orange oil, vanilla, rosewater, coffee and caramel. Other than crunchy toasted sesame seeds, other nuts such as almonds, pistachios, hazelnuts, etc can be added to enhance the flavour and taste. Wilmington foods bring to you a dazzling variety of halawas, decorated with nuts, flavored and colored to not just look amazing, but to satisfy your sweet tooth as well. Our halawas are the perfect gift for your friends and family, on any occasion.

QUALITY ASSURANCE

Wilmington Foods offers its customers 100% pure sesame seeds that retain their original aroma and taste. In every stage of our manufacturing operation, from sourcing the sesame seeds to processing and testing the final product, we strive for excellence.

To meet international food safety standards and maintain premium quality of our produce, we employ strict checks at critical points in the supply chain and adhere to stringent regulatory requirements. All our products, including the Tahini and Halawas are third-party tested by independent agencies like the SGS and TUV.

Driven by our uncompromising values and unwavering passion, we continue to work tirelessly to improve our services and products. For conducting regular tests (physical, chemical and microbiological), research, and development, Wilmington Foods is currently in the process of setting up a fully-equipped chemical test and microbiology lab on our site.

CUSTOMER FOCUS

At Wilmington Foods, we pride ourselves on providing excellent customer service. With our ethical business practices, and comprehensive product quality control, our clients can be assured of commitments being fulfilled at any cost. Compared to market price, we offer value for your money by providing the best quality sesame seeds at the best price points. We continually invest in improving our process efficiencies, to create a strong service culture that not only offers a happy and productive environment for our employees, but also helps build loyal and lasting customer relationships.
